Summary of the event:	Student and Parent Registration On the inaugural day of the First Year Engineering Induction Program, a systematic registration process was conducted for all newly admitted students and their parents. At the registration desk, participants were welcomed and guided by faculty and staff members. Students and parents recorded their attendance, received program schedules, and were provided with necessary information regarding the induction activities. This process ensured smooth coordination and helped in maintaining proper records of participation. Campus Tour Following these activities, students were taken on a campus tour to familiarize them with various facilities, departments, laboratories, library, and other amenities. The tour helped them understand the infrastructure of the institute, the resources available for their academic growth, and the opportunities to engage in co-curricular and extracurricular activities.
Outcome(s):	The registration activity created an organized start to the induction program, ensured active participation of both students and parents, and established a positive and welcoming environment for the days ahead.
